

ALEXANDRIA ELKS LEASE HOME FOR WAR

Soldiers and Sailors Will Benefit
by Patriotic Action.

Alexandria, Va., April 22.—Alexandria Lodge No. 758, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at a special meeting held tonight leased its handsome home on the south side of Prince street between Royal and Fairfax streets, to the commission on training camp activities of the War Department, and in the future that home will be used exclusively for the entertainment of the soldiers and sailors who may be in this neighborhood.

The lease to the government of this building is to extend for the period of the war.

Attending the meeting of the lodge tonight were Joseph S. Keating, and T. S. Settle, representing the commission on training camp activities.

The rathskeller of the club will be used by the soldiers and sailors for club purposes, and the main auditorium on the second floor will be used for entertainments, and the third floor for reading, writing and rest rooms.

Alexandria Lodge of Elks will vacate the present building at once and move into the building adjoining, which it formerly used as its home. The upper floor of the adjoining building already is fitted up for lodge room purposes.

The Elks' home is regarded as the best equipped building in the city of its character, and it probably is better adapted for such purposes than any other building in the city. It is one of the most attractive lodge and club rooms combined in this section.

Contractor C. H. James is engaged in remodeling the old Hotel Ramer, northwest corner of King and Fayette streets, for Thomas J. Fannon. The building will be converted into eight apartments with a modern store building on the ground floor.

The rear end of the structure has already been razed and a new addition having a depth of ninety-nine feet will be erected, with the addition of two feet. The store building will be twenty-five by forty feet, and will have entrances on both King and Fayette streets.

The marriage of Miss Jennie Aurelia Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hawley Smith, formerly of this city, now of Woodley Park, Washington, and Elmer Thompson, Ordinance Corps, N. A. I. S. A. son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther H. Thompson, this city, took place at 8 o'clock Saturday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, 1215 N. Y. street, when the ceremony was performed by Rev. John Lee A'Han, D. D., pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, this city.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Ida Northing, and her bridesmaids were her best man J. Hawley Smith, Jr., brother of the bride, after which the couple left for New York, where they will spend their honeymoon.

A musical and literary entertainment was given tonight in the parlors of Christ P. E. Church, under the auspices of the secondary division of the Alexandria Sunday School Association, and a capacity audience attended. A feature was the singing of G. M. Booth, a Y. M. C. A. worker, who is now stationed at the camp at Quantico. Music was furnished by the military band from Quantico. Previous to the entertainment the members of the band had had of that church.

Mrs. Edgar M. Wilson, 37 years old, of Alexandria County, while driving a horse and wagon across Hunting Creek bridge this afternoon, was thrown from the wagon when a big motor truck from Belvoir collided with her wagon. Mrs. Wilson sustained a lacerated scalp and also injuries to her shoulder. She was taken to the Alexandria Hospital, where her injuries were dressed by Dr. M. D. Delaney.

The suit of water consumers against the Alexandria Water Company, which has been pending for a long time before the State Corporation Commission, will be heard at 10 o'clock today, before a special session of the commission which will be held in the Corporation Court room here. The consumers will be represented by Commonwealth's Attorney S. G. Brent, and the Water Company by Attorney Gardner L. Boothe. The commission several weeks ago decided to hold the hearing in Richmond, and now have transferred it to this city.

Liberty bond sales in this city thus far are approximately $175,000 and the city's quota is $238,000. Plans for having a celebration next Friday are being hurried out by the local committee in charge of pushing the sale of the bonds.

The funeral of James Mulholland will take place at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from his late residence, 429 South Fairfax street, and services will be conducted by Rev. William H. Van Ness, pastor of the Free Methodist Church.

Perry Marshall Johnson, of Bradock Heights, and Nelson T. Snyder, this city, have returned home for ten days from the officers' training school, Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va., and soon will be commissioned second lieutenants.

Miss Sarah M. Graham died this morning at the Anne Lee Memorial Home. Her funeral will take place at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from Wheatley's mortuary chapel and services will be conducted by Rev. E. V. Reister, D. D., pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

Will Double Quota.

Greenwich, Conn., April 22.—This city is maintaining its record for response to liberty loans. The quota, $50,000, already has been exceeded, a total of $90,000 having been reached, and it is anticipated by leaders in the campaign that Greenwich will double the amount designated by the government.

COLLAR PRICE FIXING COMPLAINT MADE

Federal Trade Commission Accused
Cluett, Peabody & Co.

The question of price-fixing is now one of the big questions before the government, but the Federal Trade Commission is following the old-fashioned line that price-fixing is against the law. Yesterday it announced a campaign against Cluett, Peabody & Company, of New York, for a violation of Section 5 of the Federal Trade Commission Act by fixing the price at which retailers shall sell the collars manufactured by this company.

This complaint is one of many that will be filed against the manufacturers of all kinds of products in which the manufacturer fixes the price at which the retailer may sell his product, and refuses to supply the retailer unless he agrees to sell at the price fixed.

The Federal Trade Commission will file the same general line of complaint against all manufacturers of articles whose "retail" price is fixed to the retailer, and the price is fixed for the purpose of stifling competition and as a means of securing trade of dealers and their aid in enlarging sales and with the purpose of eliminating competition. It also charges that the company refuses to sell its products to dealers who will not agree to maintain the fixed retail price.

Rev. W. G. Partridge Dies.

Troy, N. Y., April 22.—The Rev. Dr. Warren G. Partridge, pastor of the Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, this city, and widely known as a writer of children's stories, died suddenly in his home here just after conducting the morning services. Dr. Partridge came to Troy from Pittsburgh, Pa., six years ago.

Loss of life in the British forces at the front, from all causes, is only a little more than 2 per cent a year.

BOY SCOUTS PLAN BIG RALLY TONIGHT

150 Will Receive Medals Won in Liberty Loan Campaign.

A big rally of the Boy Scouts will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Business High School, the occasion being featured by the awarding of the medals won by upward of 150 scouts during the Second Liberty Loan campaign.

The award of medals will be made by William Rowe, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, with the exception of the Livingston medal, which will be presented to Scout William Furey by Commissioner Louis Brownlow.

Members of the French and British commissions will address the Boy Scouts and relate experiences on the Western front.

The scouts will assemble at 7:30 at Seventh street and Rhode Island avenue northwest, and headed by their own Scout band, will march in a body to the high school. Kenneth Clark, of Camp Meade, will lead the boys in singing.

Grand Army Veterans Will Meet Thursday

Kit Carson Post, No. 2, G. A. R., is scheduled to hold an important meeting next Thursday night at G. A. R. Hall, 142 Pennsylvania avenue northwest, according to announcement sent out last night by John McElroy, commander. The request is made for all comrades to attend and take an active part in the proceedings.

It has been announced also that the G. A. R. National Encampment will be opened at Portland, Ore., on August 19. This date is regarded as an excellent period for holding the encampment at the point destined, weather conditions being usually fine at that time.
